Volunteer Structure

Local Kitchen Admin or Lead to review and refine existing Seva Structure and realign as and if needed (in consultation with Pujya Santo).

Regular Vimarsh with Local and National Kitchen Team

- Kitchen Admin or Lead to setup a regular Vimarsh with local kitchen team to discuss the planning for upcoming event and feedback from the previous event. In the preparation of the meeting, Kitchen Admin or Lead to:
    - Prepare and share meeting agendas in advance.
    - Record attendance and maintain detailed minutes for each meeting.
    - Submit Vimarsh reports using the form provided by SDC.
- Attend National Kitchen Team Vimarsh when called out.

Planning, Implementing and Coordination

- Menu and Cooking planning: Initially Develop a six-monthly menu and cooking roster plan for all events, including Ravi Sabha in November and May. From the following year, develop yearly planning by November for the next year events,
- Coordination: Coordinate with various teams for better seva planning and execution:
    - Local Kitchen Team for seamless execution of menu and cooking plans.
    - National Kitchen Team for equipment, bulk grocery procurement, and support for national events.
    - Donation in Kind Team to plan and provide annual ingredient lists.
    - Accounts and COPR Team for Prasad/Gift Box requirements.
    - Shayona Team for support during major events (e.g., Diwali, Rakshabandhan), including sweet and snack preparation and volunteer support for stalls and catering.

Support for Regional and Small Centres

- Work closely with regional and small centres to ensure they receive the necessary assistance during major occasions such as, For Diwali, provide these centres with Sweets and Farshan as needed.
- During large events/samiaya, extend catering services and organise volunteer support to help facilitate smooth event operations at regional and small centres.

Creating Safe Work Environment

- Implement OH&S (Occupational Health & Safety) guidelines as provided by the National Compliance Team.
- Encourage all volunteers to follow OH&S protocols.
- Ensure appropriate safety signage is displayed in the kitchen.

- Maintain OH&S records, including incident and near-miss registers.

Maintaining Commercial Kitchen Licence

- Follow all food safety guidelines as set by your council or local authority to maintain the Commercial Kitchen Licence. This involves correct procedures for food storage, preparation, handling, and cleanliness, as well as compliance with required inspections and audits. Regularly monitor and document food safety practices to ensure ongoing compliance and reduce risk.
- Renew the Commercial Kitchen Licence annually by submitting all required documentation and paying all fees before the licence expires. Keep track of renewal deadlines and regulatory changes to prevent any lapses.
- For any issues or assistance related to the Commercial Kitchen Licence, contact the National Kitchen Team. Seek their support with compliance requirements, addressing local authority concerns, and during the licensing process as needed.
- Kitchen Admin / Lead to obtain a food safety supervisor certification where Commercial Kitchen Licence is in place.

Equipment Maintenance

Maintain a register for all kitchen equipment, tracking servicing schedules and ensuring timely maintenance as per manufacturer recommendations.

Purchase

Utensils and Equipment

- Prepare lists of required Utensils and Equipment (including need for Parasabha).
