8. Office & Administration

Role Title: Lead — Office & Administration

Reports To: Department Head

Role Purpose

This role keeps the Capital Project Team organised and its records in order — the administrative backbone that lets every other department focus on its own delivery.

Key Responsibilities

- Documentation — Manages documentation and central records for the project team, ensuring drawings, approvals, contracts and reports are stored consistently and are easy to find.
- Archive — Maintains the project archive, preserving a complete historical record of each mandir project from concept through to completion.
- Meeting setup — Arranges and coordinates meetings for the Capital Project Team, including scheduling, venue/dial-in logistics and attendee coordination.
- Meeting minutes — Prepares and circulates minutes and action items from team meetings, and follows up to help ensure agreed actions are tracked to completion.
- Vimarsh — Calls and schedules the Capital Project Team's regular Vimarsh, shares the invite with everyone, and is present.
- External meetings — Attends meetings with external service providers supporting the team's administration (e.g. venue, printing, records management), where and when required.
