Position Summary

The Local Graphic Design Volunteer elevates the mandir's community presence by creating compelling print and digital materials. Performing this vital seva under guidance from the national team, you will design assets such as flyers, posters, banners and signboards for festivals and outreach events.

Roles & Responsibilities

1. Duties

- Primary contact for any local design requests:
  Act as the first point of contact for all graphic design requests originating from the local Mandir/Centre or Regional Centre, ensuring timely communication and coordination.
- Adaptation of National Artwork:
  Access artwork released by the national team through the National Graphic Design Portal and produce local versions for major Utsavs and Samaiyas by updating event-specific details only, without altering any other elements of the nationally approved artwork.
- Creation of Local Design Materials:
  Manage and execute all local graphic design tasks, including ad hoc flyers, posters, print-ready materials, and other design assets needed for festivals, community outreach initiatives, and special events. This includes preparing all flyers and posters for the Local Mandir/Centre, Parasabha, Vadil Sabha and Hindi Sabha as required. Please follow the national graphic design guidelines when creating any artwork.
- Review and Approval Process:
  Submit all completed artwork to the Mandir Coordinator for review and approval prior to distribution. Ensure that no design is released to the wider audience without formal confirmation. Mandir Coordinator can reach out to national design lead if further clarification required.
- Print Management:
  Handle local printing requirements and technical file preparations for printing press.

2. Graphic Design Portal

- Make sure you can access to National Graphic Design Portal - https://design.bapsanz.org.au
- If any issues, please reach out to national team for assistance.

3. Attending Vimarsh

- Local & National Vimarsh:
    - Attend local centre Vimarsh (Pramukh Vimarsh) & national Vimarsh
    - Review flyer requirements for upcoming events
    - Allocate Resources if required
    - Share updates, best practices and challenges
    - Adhere to latest updates from national team

4. Support from National Design Team

If you need assistance or further clarification, please feel free to reach out to the following national team members:

- National Graphic Design Admin: au.designstudio@au.baps.org
