Position Summary

The National Sales & Marketing Lead for Nativ Farms is responsible for driving national retail growth, expanding market presence, and strengthening sales performance across all channels. The role leads retail partnerships, major account strategy, and market expansion initiatives while supporting brand-aligned marketing and launch execution across Australia and beyond.

Roles & Responsibilities

1.Distributor Relationship & Channel Management

- Work with appointed distributors as the primary route to market for all retail channels.
- Support onboarding of distributors including product training, pricing structures, order processes, and marketing support materials.
- Set and monitor sales targets and distribution targets for each distributor.
- Maintain regular communication with distributors to ensure:
  - Timely order placement and replenishment
  - Coverage of target stores and territories
  - Effective execution of promotions and sampling activities
- Review distributor performance and provide monthly feedback and action plans.

2.Major Accounts Strategy (National Retail Chains)

- Develop a national strategy for major supermarket chains (e.g. Woolworths, Coles and other large-format retailers).
- Prepare business cases, category analysis, pricing models, and product range proposals.
- Support Bharatbhai/Ravibhai and senior leadership in negotiations with major accounts.
- Coordinate with operations and production teams to ensure supply readiness and compliance requirements for major retailers.
- Manage account relationships post-onboarding to ensure sales growth and shelf presence.

3.Market Expansion & Growth

- Lead geographic expansion planning across key markets including Melbourne, Brisbane, Adelaide, and other metro and regional centres.
- Identify and develop new sales channels including:
  - Online/e-commerce
  - Health and wellness stores
  - Specialty vegetarian and Satvik product outlets
- Explore and establish strategic partnerships with distributors, wholesalers, and wellness retailers.

4.Sales Enablement & Retail Support

- Prepare, Coordinate and execute strategy for in-store sampling programs to drive product awareness and trial.
- Prepare and distribute sales kits, presentations, product catalogues, and pricing sheets for retail partners.
- Provide product training and education to retailers and store staff.
- Monitor and analyse sales performance by store, region, and channel, identifying opportunities for growth.
- Support retailers with promotional planning and in-store visibility initiatives.

5.Market Intelligence & Strategy

- Conduct ongoing competitive analysis across product range, pricing, packaging, and promotions.
- Develop pricing strategies and promotional plans aligned with market expectations and brand positioning.
- Gather and analyse customer feedback and retailer insights to improve product and marketing strategies.
- Monitor market trends, consumer preferences, and emerging opportunities within the health, vegetarian, and ethnic food segments.
- Provide strategic recommendations to support product development and portfolio expansion.

6.Launch Execution – Priority (13 August)

- Confirm and onboard 10–15 pilot retail locations across priority regions.
- Ensure sampling programs are scheduled and resourced across launch locations.
- Prepare and distribute launch materials including POS displays, product brochures, and promotional kits.
- Activate and engage retailer relationships to support launch success.
- Coordinate closely with Social Media Lead and Business Development Lead to ensure integrated launch campaigns across digital and retail.

7.Governance, Performance & Reporting

- Track and report on sales performance, distribution growth, and revenue targets.
- Provide monthly and quarterly reports to leadership on:
    - Retail expansion progress
    - Sales growth by channel
    - Market insights and risks
- Identify underperforming stores/distributors and implement corrective action plans.
- Ensure all agreements, pricing structures, and partnerships align with organisational policies and brand values.
- Maintain structured records of retailer agreements, contracts, and communications.

8.Collaboration & Cross-Functional Coordination

- Work closely with:
  - National Admin – Nativ Farms (Reporting Manager)
  - Business Development Lead (marketing alignment and growth strategy)
  - Social Media Lead (campaign and promotion alignment)
  - Production, logistics, and finance teams
- Ensure alignment between sales targets, marketing campaigns, and supply chain capabilities.
- Contribute to the development of national sales and marketing strategies and planning cycles.
